TABLE STAKES™ is

7 CARD STUD ACTION

HERE'S HOW IT'S PLAYED:

The quarter drops, the player chooses either Hi-Lo or Straight Seven. The cards are dealt, 2 down, one up. The player and each of the Saloon Gang starts out with 250 chips, and antes up 5. Betting begins with the highest open card and continues around the table . . . calling, folding, raising. There's a 3 raise limit on each round.

The action heats up as Hi-Lo possibilities unfold and bluffing strategies take hold. After the final down card, everyone declares their hand — high, low or both — It's showdown time. High and low winners split the pot. If you need more "chips" along the way, Black Bart pops up and stakes you to a loan. When the last hand is over, high scorers get to key in their names. If you borrowed from Bart and are still in the hole, Bart lets you have it . . . BANG! . . . R.I.P.! The biggest losers get to initial their own tombstone in Boot Hill.

ANY WAY YOU PLAY IT, TABLE STAKES™ MAKES YOU A WINNER!
